By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION,

For a PUBLICK THANKSGIVING.

ANNE R.

WHereas it hath pleaſed Almighty God, of his great Goodneſs and Mercy, to continue to us his Protection and Aſſiſtance, in the juſt and neceſſary War, in which we are engaged, for the Safety of our Realms, and of the Liberties of Europe, by giving to our Arms, in Conjunction with thoſe of our Allies, a wonderful Courſe of Succeſs this Campaign, and more particularly, a Signal and Glorious Victory in Spain: We therefore duly conſidering, that ſuch Great and Publick Bleſſings do call for a Solemn and Publick Acknowledgment, have thought fit, by the Advice of our Privy-Council, to Iſſue forth this our Royal Proclamation, hereby Appointing and Commanding, That a General Thankſgiving to Almighty God, for theſe his Mercies, be obſerved throughout England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon Tueſday the Seventh Day of November next. And for the more devout and orderly Solemnizing the ſame, we have given Directions to our Archbiſhops and Biſhops, to Compoſe a Form of Prayer ſuitable to this Occaſion, to be uſed in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of publick Worſhip, within their reſpective Dioceſes, and to take Care of the timely diſperſing thereof. And we do likewiſe Direct and Command, That the ſaid Publick Day of Thankſgiving be religiouſly Obſerved by all our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon pain of ſuffering ſuch Puniſhment as we may juſtly inflict on all ſuch as ſhall Contemn or Neglect the Performance of ſo religious and neceſſary a Duty.

Given at our Court at Kenſington, the Twenty ſixth Day of September, 1710. In the Ninth Year of our Reign.

God ſave the QUEEN.

Turin, September 17. N. S. Great Remittances have been lately made here for the Service of the Confederate Army. The Troops continue in their former Poſts near Oulx, and on the Frontiers of Savoy; but the Snow having begun to fall in great quantities on the Mountains, it is thought they will ſoon be obliged to decamp. We do not hear that the Duke of Berwick has as yet made any Detachments towards Rouſſillon. They write from Rome, that they are in great hopes there of ſeeing the Differences between the Pope and the Emperor brought to a ſpeedy Accommodation. They ſay the Pope is to grant his Imperial Majeſty a Brief for the raiſing 200000 Crowns upon the Revenues of the Inferior Clergy in the Milaneze; and that the Emperor, in return, engageth that no Troops ſhall be Quartered in the Territories of Ferrara this Winter; and the Pope is not without hopes of prevailing with his Imperial Majeſty at length to reſtore Comachio to the Holy See.

Copenhagen, September 27. N. S. The Damage the Daniſh Fleet ſuffered in the late Storm, which happened on the 14th Inſtant, proves more conſiderable than was at firſt reported. Six Capital Ships are entirely diſabled, and five others are ſtill miſſing, as are likewiſe ſeveral of the Tranſports. Upon this Accident the King has reſolved to defer ſending for the Muſcovites 'till the next Spring. Monſieur Walderſée is ſet out from hence for Ratisbon, and is to execute a Commiſſion at the Court of the Elector Palatin, relating to an old Debt due to this Crown, on account of the late Electreſs, who was Siſter to the late King of Denmark.
